POETRY: A Magazine of Verse

To lure away this fantasy?

Your eyes

Your eyes!

THE BRINGERS OF GIFTS

High above the city

We stood, and watched the boats upon the river.

You had your dreams

But the deeper peace that I knew at last

Was not in your eyes' grey depths.

From the cup of my hands

You drank but the remembrance of sorrow;

I knew but the fragrance of your spirit

When the censer

Lay broken at my feet.

Above the city

We watched the life of the river.

We saw the lights appear

BELSHAZZAR

We were walled about with sinister intentions,

And the hot, sweet summer day was suddenly alive

With quickening fears.

We knew but we shut them out,

As one shuts out the unbearable sunlight of the dawn.
